

RESCUE VEHICLES

Ambulance EmmertRescue I

Simple ambulance transport is also anything but trivial: The modern patient ambulance EmmertRescue I offers maximum comfort in order to keep the burden on the patient and the paramedic as low as possible. At the same time, the EmmertRescue I has an ergonomic and intuitive interior layout so that work can occur safely and efficiently.

Technical specifications:

Basis vehicles: Mercedes Sprinter,
Volkswagen Crafter, Ford Transit

Types of vehicles: Van with 3665 mm wheelbase and total weight from 3.5 t

Exterior:

- Innovative blue light system with integrated acoustics, work lights and ambient lighting;
- An outdoor camera system with 360° Bird View and indoor camera is optionally available.

Interior:

- Spacious storage system with various drawers, extractable structures and hatches;
- Storage cabinets for an oxygen system with immobilisation and emergency bags;
- Accommodation facilities for extended medical equipment for Type B ambulance service;
- Air conditioning in the patient area and power supply with 12 V and 230 V;
- Mains supply 230 V;
- Loading and access aids.

ADVANTAGES OF EMMERT RESCUE I:

- The concept of the EmmertRescue I can be implemented on any base vehicle;
- Folding and rotating seats for accompanying persons;
- Practical and space-saving solutions for medical and immobilisation technology; production of individual supports for transport systems;
- Modern lighting and air conditioning systems with innovative control units;
- Resistant and modern power supply units;
- Utilisation of free space through additional creation of storage areas.